FORTY-FOURTH ANNUAL REPORT.

WE are closing, to-day, the forty-fourth year of our history, and as we look back we can have nothing but thankfulness in our hearts for the good way in which our Lord has led us. From a small beginning we have extended our work until now we have five Branches and nineteen Committees from our Board of Managers doing active Association work.

To look at this work in detail let us consider first, the ADMISSION Committee which receives applications for permanent board, looks after the girls when they come here, and provides for their happiness and pleasure and their physical and spiritual health.

The new year began with a religious service, at which there was a large attendance; on January 5th the House Party brought all together in a happy evening; a farewell service was held when many of the girls left for the summer, and a welcoming meeting when they returned. There was a gathering for prayer every evening, directly after dinner; a 9 o'clock meeting Sunday morning, and another an hour later for employees. On Thursday evening two Bible classes, a Junior and a Senior, had Mrs. Amanda S. White for their teacher. A Personal Workers' Class, under Mrs. Kearney, had also many members; this class was to prepare young women to work in the Sunday campaign. Other occasional evenings were given up to Club gatherings, to fun and entertainment. All of these strengthen the tie between the Committee and the girls, and no evening is ever considered quite complete without the presence of the sympathetic, genial Chairman.

The BUILDING Committee have under their charge the keeping of the house in good repair, a work that, as time goes on, becomes more and more needed. Among other things they, last year, installed a new heating plant in this house; attended to the fitting up of the rooms in the Mary C. Simpson Institute, and have had under their supervision the two new Kensington Buildings.

The members of the HOUSE Committee devote themselves to the cleanliness and comfort of the house, and have been concerned, with fine results, over new carpets and curtains and fresh paint and paper. Through the kindness of Mrs. Alfred J. Moore, who has fitted up a room on the second floor in loving memory of her sister, the girls have a beautiful living room, which they thoroughly enjoy. No money has been spared to make it artistic, cheerful and comfortable. The pictures on the walls are a constant pleasure. One of the girls told of having seen a picture in a Chestnut Street store, which she much admired, and how great her surprise and delight were when she found it again in this room where, as she said, she could look at it as if it were her own.

The summer brought, as usual, great activity to the Transient Department, which is under the care of this Committee, and much appreciation was expressed by most of the many who spent a day or two with us on their way to sea or mountain, they declaring that our people took more trouble for strangers than in any other large city, for in the general office they were always ready to answer questions, look up trains, etc., and the list of places to see and how to get to them met with warm approval and thanks.

The number of guests, during the year, was 23,405. On many nights in July and August every cot in the house was brought into use, and the Transient Matron tried to solve the problem of how to accommodate more guests. There came also, sometimes, stranded girls to the office. These were referred to the General Secretary, and were put to work in the Restaurant while waiting for the letter that never came, or the work that was promised soon. This office, likewise, on occasion, helped the detective department by caring for run-aways, and received excited mothers who came looking for missing daughters, which looks as if the Transient Office was not always a tranquil place.

The SUPPLY Committee provides for the Restaurant and the boarders' dining room. The small round tables in the dining room and the beautiful new table linen, given by Miss Ely and the Junior League, are very much appreciated, and add greatly to the home feeling of the girls. Improvements for the comfort of those who come to the Restaurant have been made there also. The number of meals served in the Restaurant was 67,887.

In the EMPLOYMENT Bureau, without charge to either employer or employed, positions are found, so far as possible, for all occupations except domestic service. The conditions have been discouraging this year because of the pressure of hard times, which has increased the number of those who want work and lessened the demand for help. The record shows that there were 2,250 who came seeking work, 865 applications from employers and 802 positions were filled. This is an increase over the year before of three hundred in the list of applicants, and a decrease of nearly one hundred on the part of employers. The work done here is not that of an ordinary Employment Office, for the girls are encouraged to tell their troubles and are sure of finding kindness and hopeful words. There is scarcely an hour of the day when some one is not sitting at the Secretary's desk confiding her troubles and asking advice, for they tell her, "It is such a comfort just to talk to you."

The LIBRARY has extended its hours and is open now from 10 A. M. to 9.45 P. M. The constant accession of new books, the care of the librarians in suggesting desirable reading, the number of magazines and daily papers, and the fine Reference Annex are strong attractions. During the year 6,608 volumes were loaned, and 32,510 readers used the room. Boxes of reading matter were sent to the Life Saving Station of Cape May, Seamen's Mission, Pennsylvania Prison Society, Salvation Army and to a Colored School in the South.

The EDUCATIONAL Department had 603 pupils enrolled in 54 classes, and on every night of the week, excepting Saturday and Sunday, could be seen there interested girls, busy with their studies, or work, or in the Gymnasium. To the curriculum were added, last year, three new studies: Story Telling, First Aid to the Injured and German. The Commencement in May was of great interest, and certificates of graduation were given to twenty-four girls. The new class rooms and the fine Gymnasium in the Mary C. Simpson Institute, are of great pleasure to both students and teachers.

Faith and Works, now entering its fortieth year of publication, has had for its aim the giving of the details, in summer and winter alike, of the many phases of our work. It records the activities of the different Committees and of the various Clubs. It tells of the life pulsating here and the enthusiasm of the girls, coming back from Summer Conferences, speaks through it. In May it laid aside the plain dress it had worn for so long, and arrayed itself in a more decorative cover.

The members of the AUXILIARY GUILD have been busy with their needles. For the benefit of this Association they hemmed forty dozen napkins, eighteen table cloths and four dozen glass towels, and made fifteen kimonos.

In 1896 Miss Emeline Wiegner, then Chairman of the KENSINGTON BRANCH, received $10 as the beginning of a Building Fund, the increase of which she made the object of her hopes and prayers, and to it she devoted all her energies. Ten years later this fund had reached the sum of $1,400. In that same year (1906) Bishop Hoffman offered to put up a memorial building, suitable for the purposes of our Association, if we would buy the lot. And now the dream and the desire of eighteen years is realized in the finished Hoffman Memorial and the near completion of the larger building adjoining.

During the past year the members of the Committee have carried on their evening classes in their rather crowded rented quarters, conducted successfully a Cafeteria, started a Stamp Saving Fund, and held noon meetings in neighboring mills, a phase of their work which seems full of promise and possibilities. They have a vigorous and growing Junior Department that has a membership of 36 and meets twice a week, and a Mother's Meeting of the women of the neighborhood, under the care of the Mother's Club of Germantown. In November this Kensington Committee moved, with great pleasure, into the Memorial Building, and, as one expressed it, felt that, at last, they were really at home. Here they have the beginning of a Boarding Home and, the Chairman says, a most congenial family.

The SEASIDE HOMES' Committee were busy from May 21st in preparing the houses for the coming of Managers and their friends on June 12th. On June 29th the first of the regular vacation guests arrived, and from that time, until the closing on September 16th, the houses were filled, sometimes to overflowing, with girls who spent one or two happy weeks there. Sixteen hundred and seventy names were entered on the register, some 20 of these being sent by the Beneficiary Fund, and happy indeed are some of the stories told to the dispenser of the fund of the pleasure and health thus gained by the sea. Some had never seen the ocean before, and their amazement and delight at the sight of the waves, and their gratitude for this opportunity given were touching.

During the summer Penllyn was the Mecca for girls who had only a week or, more often, but a week-end to spend out of town, and from early spring till the coming of cold weather the doors of this lovely country home opened to hundreds of delighted girls.

The PRAYER LEAGUE has on its list a large number of our Managers who pledge themselves to pray for some branch of the Association work during the month. That these prayers are abundantly answered is shown by our enlarged interests, increased opportunities and by the manifest growth of religious spirit in the house.

The influence of the RELIGIOUS WORK Committee is felt in all departments. They arrange for speakers; for supper table meetings; for the Wednesday and Friday Bible Classes and the Saturday evening meeting; for the meetings at the Kensington Branch; the Vesper services and Bible Classes at the Southwest Branch, and for all similar gatherings in any part of our work. A "Get Acquainted" Supper, followed by a meeting of the Federated Women's Bible Classes was held in January. Out-of-Doors Bible Classes in May and June were well attended, and in all religious work we find this Committee gladly active.

The EXTENSION Committee reports meetings held in factories and about 1,000 girls reached each week. In addition to these the Kensington Branch reached 600 girls weekly, and the Collins Branch 500.

It is impossible, in a report like this, to tell of the diversity of work and the good done. Eternity alone can show what is being daily accomplished. As we have heard the monthly reports we have recognized the Spirit of Christ in the self-denials, enthusiasm and helpfulness of the volunteer workers who aid the Secretaries in many ways, and by their earnestness and good-will fast gain the hearts of these working girls. Many of the owners of these mills, sympathetic with our aims, have fitted up rooms where the girls can meet at the noon hour or in the evenings. Several active Clubs have been formed. Of one of these we learn that its members, in their turn, are doing helpful work in bringing to their Club room children from a near-by small street, and entertaining them with stories and games.

The J. LEWIS CROZER ANNEX is a pleasant home, accommodating forty-two girls, who share the enjoyments of those in this building, and spend many delightful evenings in their own comfortable sitting room which, in summer, they exchange for their cooler porch. The daily prayer service is well attended, but for all other religious services they join with those of this house. The Aloha Club is a factor in the pleasant life lived there.

The Associated Committee on POLICE MATRONS is composed of twenty-four members, three delegates each from eight of the societies doing religious, charitable and humane work in this city. The activities of this Committee have been largely devoted to efforts to reduce the suffering from material want. Many women and children were brought under police care this year, and the garments given to the Committee for this purpose were a great help.

The SOUTHWEST BRANCH has shown constant progress through the year. Classes in millinery, sewing, English and the Bible have taken up every available space in their present quarters. They have an Employment Committee which has proved itself useful, and they have the nucleus of a library which they are anxious to increase. Their lodging rooms have been eagerly sought, and are far from being equal in number to the demand. The exhibition in May of what the classes had done, showed excellent work. The Third Annual Conference of Colored Employed and Vunteer Workers, held in the early part of the year, had for its object the bringing together of these Colored Associations to oneness of purpose.

The NORTH AMERICAN LACE FACTORY BRANCH, of which the Chrysanthemum Club is a strong factor, has just finished the best year in its history. It had nineteen classes with a membership of 241. There was an interested class in First Aid to the Injured. Other noon meetings were given up to music, games and entertainments, and on every Tuesday there was a religious service. A series of Mothers' Meetings was lately commenced.

At the COLLINS BRANCH evening and noon classes were started in Bible study, cooking, milinery, plain sewing and basketball. Entertainments were given there weekly on Tuesdays, and every Thursday there was a religious service with some clergyman as leader. There were two Christmas parties, one given by the firm for the employees, and the other by the Big Sister Club for eighty of the neighborhood children, who greatly enjoyed the games and the Christmas tree, and nearly mobbed Santa Claus when he appeared to distribute the candy canes and oranges. This Big Sister Club is led by several Temple College Kindergarten teachers, and exists for the benefit and upbringing of the neighboring children.

The Chairman of the JUNIOR LEAGUE AUXILIARY Committee reports that four members of the League visited factories at the noon hour under the guidance of the Extension Committee. In order to give the members of the Auxiliary some information and training that they can, in turn, give to the girls in the factories, a class for instruction in First Aid to the Injured was formed. This class of twelve members met once a week in the Mary C. Simpson Institute, and was taught by Dr. Stewart Rodman.

There are many Clubs connected with our Association. The Philotasean is composed of girls boarding in the house. They are very active and a strong influence in its social and religious life. Their prayer meeting on Tuesday evening, under the direction of the Chairman of their Religious Committee, Miss Elizabeth Winter, is of much interest. Most of their work is quietly done; if any girl is in need they are quick to help, to secure her a position if need be, to visit her if ill, and to do all in their power for the lonely, the sick or the sad-hearted in the house. Their President, Miss Anna Hudson, got up sales and concerts and entertainments through the year, the proceeds of which went into the Philotasean treasury and went soon out again for many uses. One pleasant use for their capital was a trolley car full of children for Lemon Hill one Saturday afternoon. Their Saturday afternoons with the children there, their games and plays made happy times for the little ones. Other money was spent in sending girls on vacations and outings.

In the SEA REST Club, only those girls who have been to Sea Rest-Whelen are eligible for membership, and they show their love for it by doing all possible for its benefit. In the summer they gave a handsome rug for the Library and had the awnings on the south side newly covered. Within the last month they raised the money to pay for the building of six rooms over the laundry, thus making it possible to accommodate more of the many applicants who are anxious to come to this pleasant home by the sea.

The Christmas work of all the Clubs was very beautiful. The Kensington Clubs filled stockings for invalid and crippled children, and sent baskets to needy families, and work of that sort was done by practically all the Clubs, the girlish hearts being touched by the needs that came to them. But my limited time will allow of the detailed account of only one. This was a children's entertainment held in the Gymnasium of the Institute, which was arranged for by the Thimble Club of the Educational Department, with some of the Extension girls, who had been busy for weeks with dressing dolls, and many toys had been collected. Four hundred children were invited, thirty-eight of them being cripples, and the delight of all was fairly pathetic to see. None of the children were well acquainted with Christmas joys; one little girl of ten had never seen a Santa Claus, the saint on that occasion being one of the Thimble Club girls cleverly disguised. The happiness of the children was raised to rapture by their gifts, and it is certain that that blissful afternoon will not soon be forgotten by either hostesses or guests.

From nearly all the Clubs delegates were sent to the Summer Conference at Camp Nepahwin, and the reports brought back by these girls were most enthusiastic, and showed a desire on the part of each to lead a more earnest Christian life.

The Camp Fire Groups, of which there are many, are following the steps of their older sisters in the Clubs, and are looking out for ways of helping and keeping their pledge of service.

In April there was held, in Convention Hall, under the auspices of the Field Committee, a Pageant, the purpose of which was to represent the physical training, social life, opportunities for education and the spiritual ideals of the Young Women's Christian Association among college, country, city and foreign girls. Many of the girls in the Gymnasium and other classes of the Educational Department took part in it, the Melody Club singing with the Chorus.

On May 12th the Mary C. Simpson Institute, the gift of Alexander Simpson, Jr., was dedicated. This building, with its fine Gymnasium, class rooms and a large Club room, is a great addition to our resources, and much appreciated by all who work or play there.

In October Mrs. Henry W. Green, who had been our President for ten years, was obliged by ill health to give up the position she had filled so ably and with so much success. Her resignation was accepted with great regret, and Mrs. Joseph A. Hudson, Assistant to the President, was elected to fill the vacant office.

Our mail room is at most times a busy place, but naturally toward Christmas the work increases. The mail clerk reports that, during the three days immediately preceding Christmas, 326 mail packages and 2,155 letters were received and given out, with the exception of 150 which were forwarded to girls who had gone away for over Christmas. On New Year's Day the first postal delivery brought 310 letters.

We would acknowledge our indebtedness to the clergymen who have come to conduct the opening services of our Association meetings and to speak at the Sunday services, and to those of Asbury Park who so willingly took charge of the daily morning prayers at Sea Rest; to the physicians who have often been of great help, and to the press for their kindly reports of our activities. Our thanks are due also to Ernest Leigh Tustin, Esq., and William H. Peace, Esq., for their kindness whenever legal advice or help was needed. And to our faithful staff of employees we would express our gratitude. Much of the ease with which the caring for a great house like this is carried on, is owing to their faithfulness and efficiency; especially is this the case in the summer when so many of the Committee members are out of town.

During the year we have received the following additions to our Board of Managers: Miss Elsie Douglass, St. Paul's Church, Ogontz; Miss Hannah Miller, Spring Garden M. E. Church; Mrs. Frances L. Bernstein, Chestnut Street Baptist Church; Mrs. W. M. Bradley, Bethany Presbyterian Church; Mrs. Joseph A. Coxe, St. Peter's P. E. Church; Mrs. R. G. Barnes, Arch Street Presbyterian Church; Mrs. Alexander Simpson, Mary C. Simpson Memorial Church; Mrs. Henry J. Gibbons, Old Pine Street Presbyterian Church, and Mrs. Lewis S. Somers, Tioga Baptist Church.

By death we have lost eight beloved co-workers: Mrs. John A. Kinsler, who died on March 20th, and who had been with us since 1902; Mrs. Philip Powell, by whose death, on April 9th, we lost a friend with whom we had worked for twenty-six years; Mrs. J. F. Cummings, who died on May 23rd, an active Manager for fifteen years; Mrs. Andrew Culver, who died on July 17th, having been with us since 1898; Mrs. Jacob Harley, who died on August 10th, and who had been closely identified with our Association since 1871, almost its very beginning; Mrs. Robert H. Hinckley, Chairman of the Employment Committee, who died on September 25th after thirty-five years of faithful work; Miss Emma W. Siner, whose sudden death, on October 17th, took from our list of Managers one who had been a Manager since 1903, and Mrs. William B. Hanna, Vice-President, representing the Baptist denomination, who died November 14th after faithful work of thirty-two years in our Association.

We would also pay tribute to the memory of Miss Grace H. Dodge, President of the National Board, who died in New York on December 27th. Her death is a loss to all the Young Women's Christian Associations of our country, for she was well loved by young and old, a faithful, conscientious, self-denying worker, worthy of her high position, whose going is a national loss.

"Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord. Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors, and their works do follow them."

In presenting this report it is with the realization that our hearts should be filled with gratitude for the past, and hope and trust for the future. Much has been done, but there is yet much to do. The South West Branch is sadly in need of a larger home that they may do properly the work that lies before them. The J. Lewis Crozer Annex is much in need of a better heating plant, the present one being quite insufficient, and the comfort of the girls who live there is greatly desired by the Committee. Then, also, we have long wished to enter West Philadelphia, but the lack of funds has, so far, prevented any movement in that direction. But we have learned that "the Lord is good to them that wait for Him," and, resting on that assurance, we can look forward to the new year with glad hearts and high hopes of what it may bring to us as an Association.

ALICE FEINOUR BURK,
Corresponding Secretary.

FORTY-THIRD ANNUAL REPORT.

1913.

IN reviewing the work of the past year we see months of progress and activity and accomplishment; months, also, of work and thought and planning. Our nineteen Committees have been faithful and the results they show are most encouraging.

The chief event of the year was the Campaign in May by which the sum of $500,000 was raised. These days stand out vividly in the memory of all who took part, and mark, in some degree, a turning point in our history. Though the heads of all Departments, as well as most of the Managers, were actively interested in it, yet the work of the Committees went on uninterruptedly. Indeed, the influence of the prayers and effort of those days seemed to give power to the home work.

The ADMISSION Committee reports that the Sunday services have been unusually well attended, the number present on one morning being 350. These are led frequently by interested clergymen, and the music furnished by the Melody and Mandolin Clubs. The Philotasean Club is an influential factor in the house; its members welcome new girls, provide for many pleasant evenings, help with the Sunday services, and in outside effort give much assistance to the Lemon Hill summer work. The Home Department Bible Class, which was started in November with Mrs. Amanda S. White as teacher, has had many present at each session.

In the EDUCATIONAL Department there have been 21 classes, with 26 sessions and 584 pupils enrolled. Any subject is taught for which there are enough applicants. The Athletic, the T., the Literary and Current Events Clubs, the Jolly Juniors and a Camp Fire Group provide for happy hours outside of the regular studies. The new building at the rear of our house, now rapidly approaching completion, will be a great gain to the Educational work, giving, as it does, many class and club rooms and a fine Gymnasium.

To the HOUSE Committee we owe the well-being that pervades our building. The reports given during the year have shown constant work. The comfort of a large number of guests has been ministered to and a great many expressions of appreciation have been received. The number of transient guests during 1913 was 23,067, and 95 free lodgings were given. Many pathetic stories are behind this report of free lodgings, and never a month goes by without this Committee performing some beautiful act of charity.

This is true, also, of all other Committees; it is, indeed, the spirit of our Association, and we see it in the SUPPLY Committee, where we learn that 16 free meals were given. Besides these there were 74,489 meals served, the average cost of which was  $16\frac{2}{3}$  cents. A home for the waitresses employed in the house was opened in March at 158 N. 20th Street. This is a most home-like home, comfortable in every respect. There are pleasant rooms on the first floor where the girls may receive their friends, or where they may read, or sew, or play, or rest, as they will. The bedrooms on the second and third floors are carefully fitted up, and, best of all, there is a Housemother whose pleasure it is to see after the pleasure of the girls, chaperone them when necessary, and enter into all their pleasures and plans.

The EMPLOYMENT Committee found, last year, positions for 885 applicants. There were 1,949 who came seeking work, and 953 applications from employers. This Bureau is without cost to either employer or employed, and positions are found, so far as possible, for all occupations except domestic service.

In the LIBRARY we find the best of the newest books; of these, 111 were added last year, 92 by purchase and 19 were gifts. Of the periodicals, weekly and monthly, there are 50, of which 15 are subscribed for, and the others are personal gifts or exchanges with Faith and Works. Five daily papers are taken. There were, last year, 6,096 volumes loaned, and 24,801 readers used the Library. Boxes of reading matter were sent to the Settlement House at Kensington, to the Life Saving Station at Cape May, five boxes to several Seamen's Societies, five to the Salvation Army, and three to the Pennsylvania Prison Society.

The KENSINGTON BRANCH had a successful year. In the cafeteria 12,906 meals were served, and the classes showed, at their exhibition in May, very much good work done. The girls have formed themselves into four Clubs, and there are several Camp Fire Groups. A Mother's Club was an outgrowth of the year. There have been many requests for board, but, except in summer when there were no classes, their small quarters made this impossible. But the erection this year of the new buildings will enable them to widely extend their work. One house will be the Eliza Luney Hoffman Memorial House, provided for by a legacy of Bishop Hoffman; the adjoining building will be put up as a result of the Campaign. This Committee has also done much extension work, visiting, under their Secretary, in four factories and forming classes and social Clubs.

The RELIGIOUS WORK Department reports that, during the past twelve months, there were held, in this building, ten Bible Study classes, one Mission Study class, forty Vesper services and Drop-In Bible classes. This Drop-In Bible class, held on Sunday afternoons, was of much interest, and the social hour, which followed, was greatly appreciated by the strangers who came. Two luncheons were given for religious workers. At the Kensington Branch there were monthly Vesper services and a Bible class, and at the Southwest Branch Vesper services each Sunday and a Bible class. Much personal service was done, such as work for the poor and needy, and the special care of several "Big Sisters" for the younger ones. The Religious Work Bookshelf holds some fifty volumes and has been proved very useful.

In the different factories visited by the members of the EXTENSION Committee the girls' days have been brightened by noon meetings of various sorts. Some are religious, some educational, some social, some musical. A Federation of the Clubs has been formed which includes nineteen Clubs and 587 girls. In November the girls took, as a community service, the endowment of a room in this building for any girl in the city who might be out of work and with no home. Several of the Clubs are furnishing the room, making it look quite cozy and home-like for the girl who is in need of cheer and friends. Quite a number of girls have made use of the room and have been most appreciative of its service. Nine Camp Fires were organized and are well under way, and are doing much to create an interest in outdoor life, and to glorify the commonplace of our everyday existence. Each Camp Fire pledges itself to be of service, and the girls have accomplished a good deal in their altruistic efforts. There are self-governing Clubs in sixteen factories, and the Committee come in touch with 1,625 girls each week.

The Associated Committee on POLICE MATRONS is composed of twenty-four members, three delegates each from eight of the societies doing religious, charitable and humane work in this city. The members visited regularly, last year, the Police Matrons, and exerted their influence in the passage of laws pertaining to the well-being of women prisoners. Worn clothing sent to them has been of great use.

The J. LEWIS CROZER ANNEX is a cheerful place with its forty-three girls who fill the house with their gladness of living. They join the girls in our building in their meals, in all the pleasures here, and are found in attendance at the religious services; but for their daily evening worship they gather round their Housemother, as she leads them in prayer, and listen to her helpful talks. Their Aloha Club, with its Welcoming, Entertainment and Social Committees, was organized in November.

The SOUTHWEST BRANCH (Colored) moved, last year, to a somewhat larger house, and are now located at 619 S. 16th Street. Their four educational classes and their two Clubs did good work. The Vesper service and Bible class, on Sunday, are well attended. An Employment Office for domestic service was opened, which we hope will be a success. A Bazaar in December brought work and pleasure and profit. Public meetings have been held in Churches to awaken the interest of the public.

The PRAYER LEAGUE is composed of Managers who have accepted the privilege of praying for our Association, and to Him who is the Hearer and Answerer of prayer we attribute all the success in our work.

On June 30th the SEASIDE HOMES were opened for summer boarders, and from that time until the closing, on September 18th, the houses were full, sometimes to overflowing. The summer was a most happy one to all at Sea Rest and The Whelen. Entertainments in the house or at Ocean Grove and the delights of the ocean made the two weeks, the limit of stay, pass all too quickly, and many were the expressions of pleasure that rewarded the Committee. The record showed that there were 2,000 applications received, but of these it was possible to accommodate but 1,708.

Another Holiday House is that at Penllyn, established principally for girls working in the factories, to hundreds of whom it brought new life and health. In February the girls began to go there, and from that time until cold weather every week-end saw the house filled with girls.

To the Conference in July at Camp Nepahwin went many of our girl members, the money to send them having been raised by the different Clubs by concerts, candy sales, etc. It was a happy, helpful fortnight to all who went. As a delegate from one of the Educational Clubs wrote, "New friendships were formed and many plans and purposes born in that Camp among the hills."

The Fourth Biennial Convention of the Young Women's Christian Associations of the United States was held in Richmond in April. To this we sent as delegates our President, Mrs. Henry W. Green, and one of our Vice Presidents, Mrs. H. B. Yerger.

During the World's Week of Prayer of the Young Women's Christian Associations, in November, a mass meeting was held on Sunday afternoon in Assembly Hall, at which the Rev. C. I. Scofield was the chief speaker. On Monday a National Evening was given by the Club girls, the Melody Club furnishing the music. On Thursday there was a meeting for Association workers, and on Friday a service for employees in the Tower Room.

Early in December was held the Y. W. C. A. Conference for City Workers. This was arranged by the Field Committee to bring together the Presidents of the twenty-seven City Associations of Pennsylvania, Delaware and Maryland, to discuss the religious and social work carried on by the different Associations.

The following legacies were received: From estate of Mrs. M. J. C. Reynolds, $210.00; from estate of Bishop Hoffman, $25,000.00; and from estate of Rebecca L. Bringhurst, $5,000.00.

We would acknowledge our indebtedness to the clergymen who have come to conduct the opening services of our Association, and to speak at the Sunday services, and to those of Asbury Park who so willingly came for the daily morning service at Sea Rest; to the physicians who have never failed to respond to our call; and to the press for their kindly reports of our activities. Our thanks are due also to Ernest Leigh Tustin, Esq., for his continued kindness whenever legal advice or help was needed. And to our faithful staff of helpers we would express our gratitude. Much of the ease, with which the innumerable details connected with the caring for a great house like this is carried on, is owing to their faithfulness and efficiency; especially is this the case in the summer, when so many of the Committee members are out of town.

During the last twelve months we have received six new Managers, and lost the following by death: Mrs. Jacob H. Jackson, who died on January 18th; Mrs. B. B. Comegys, who died on February 18th; Mrs. Hiram F. Reed, who died on April 3d; Mrs. P. W. Lawrence, who died on May 19th; Mrs. J. M. Rommel, who died on July 16th; and Miss Elizabeth J. Harkness, who died on November 27th. Each of these had served faithfully, two for long years, loving the work well; and their going leaves a sad void in our ranks and in our hearts.

As we have taken this brief look backward, we cannot have failed to see the good hand of our Lord upon us in every department of this work. Surely He has helped us; and as we stand on the threshold of another year, we can look forward with confident trust to whatever He may have for us in the future, and give to His Name all the glory for all that we have been enabled to accomplish in this year that is so lately past.
